THE CATHOLIC CAMPUS PARISH OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

The Aquinas Newman Center is a permanent Community of the Catholic Faithful, established as a parish of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe at the University of New Mexico. While its primary mission is to the University Students, Faculty, Staff and Administrators, the parish community genuinely welcomes all who wish to participate in the work and worship of the parish. As a Newman Center, we have the mission of proclaiming the Word of God and presenting theology to an academic community that finds in our parish an intellectual and spiritual basis for becoming and remaining committed Roman Catholics.

ARE YOU LISTENING?

So many voices, so little time! Friends, family, TV, cell phones, emails, job responsibilities, meetings, calendars, etc. In the midst of all this, how can we discern the voice of God? In today's Gospel, I have often related to Peter who reacted to the voice that said, "This is my beloved Son." Quick! Build a monument! I don't want to forget this moment! Then I realized a key phrase that follows: "Listen to him." ... oops ... Sometimes I forget that part.

Jesus himself showed us how to listen. On a regular basis, he would set himself apart to reflect and pray. To the needs of the suffering, he listened. To the events that unfolded in his life, he discerned the meaning. And he listened to what was going on inside himself. Yes, this kind of listening requires dying to oneself, but it was the only way to a transfigured glory: the resurrection.

Listening transfigures us. It opens a whole new world to everything from revelation to healing. Even during Mass, there are intentional moments of silence: a time to discern, take in, reflect, and ... yes ... listen.

For two weeks now, we've had the opportunity to hear the Word of God in our own time using the MP3 discs provided for us by Faith Comes By Hearing. Already, I've heard reports like "I never realized the depth of some of Jesus' words until now." And "I didn't think I'd have the time, but now I can't stop!" Fr. Tom's encouraging letter in the bulletin two weeks ago said, "Prayerful listening to the Word ... bears good fruit in our lives. Each time we hear it, we hear something new or God speaks to us in a new way." What has been your experience so far? Send me your comments to steve@aquinasnm.org.

As a side note, I know that some of you have struggled with the technology of MP3. So, here's a little help. First of all, this is not a regular audio CD. (It would take at least 17 CDs to fit the New Testament if it were.) MP3 files are a more convenient way to make it available. On the internet, visit www.aquinasnm.org and CLICK on "How To Use MP3" to see how it works. (Or you can simply visit the site, with your speakers on, and automatically hear a new chapter every day.) You can play this disc on your computer, a DVD player, or an MP3-compatible CD player.

LITURGY

Silence is Golden -Throughout Lent, we will revive a tradition many parishes are doing. Our "Song of Sending Forth" at the end of each Mass will be replaced with a prayerful silence. Be prepared that as we leave each Lenten Celebration, please allow the Presider and ministers to process out first as we also follow them in prayerful silence.

Triduum Choir Rehearsals - Every Sunday in March from 1-3pm in the Chapel and Sat., April 4 from 9 to Noon. Come be a part of an incredible celebration!

PARISHIONERS

- Interested in deepening into the path of non-violence, and looking at the role of ego in violence toward ourselves and others this Lent? If so, consider attending a short term group. The group will meet for four Wednesdays during Lent from 7-8:30pm at the Newman Center. It will be limited in size and will be led by Judy Bierbaum who has led non-violence workshops in the U.S. and abroad for more than 10 years. For more details please call Judy at 268-1040.
- The Final Study Evening at Catherine House for this season is today, March 8 at 4pm. The writings of St. Catherine of Siena are the focus of study. Recommended books are Catherine of Siena, Passion for the Truth, Compassion for Humanity by Mary O'Driscoll OP or The Dialogue by Catherine of Siena. Contact Sr. Pauline or Sr. Geneal at catherinehse@msn.com or 354-1723 for reservations. The evening includes prayer, study and a light supper.
- Prayer Partner Ministry: The annual Partners in Prayer Ministry Retreat will on Saturday, March 28, from noon to 3:45pm. Come for soulful rejuvenation through prayer, silence, and sharing our journeys as prayer ministers. Our retreat leader is Sr. Geneal Kramer OP. The retreat starts with a light lunch at noon. The retreat location is 621 Richmond NE. For further information and to RSVP, please contact Sharon Pikula at 896-2726 or ruacpikzub@msn.com.
- Peace and Social Justice: Lent is the time to renew our commitment to renewal of ourselves and our environment through mindfulness, prayer, and sacrifice. The pledge/post Cards which help raise environmental awareness are still available in the Gathering space. Remember to put your signed and stamped pledge cards in the glass bowl in the gathering space. Other conservation tips from parishioners: Dry your clothes outside; instead of letting the cold water run down the drain while you are waiting for warm water, use a "nutty bucket" for the cold. Use the saved water for re-use on your plants.

Campus Ministry

40 DAYS FOR LIFE: Everyone is invited to take part in the national 40 Days for Life this Lenten Season/Spring of 2009, through April 5. In addition to 40 days of prayer and fasting for an end to abortion in America, please come to pray outside the Albuquerque Planned Parenthood facility (719 San Mateo Blvd.) for one or more hours during the 40 days, and spread the word to others about this important life-saving effort. In order to maintain a constant vigil, Project Defending Life has assigned specific dates to all the parishes. Members of the Newman Center are being asked to cover March 13 and April 8 between 7am and 7pm in prayer at the Chapel of the Holy Innocents (625 San Mateo NE). Sign-up sheets are in the gathering space or you can go to www.defendinglife.org to sign up under 40 Days for Life. Please consider taking time to pray for the efforts of this lifesaving ministry.
