THE CATHOLIC CAMPUS PARISH OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

The Aquinas Newman Center is a permanent Community of the Catholic Faithful, established as a parish of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe at the University of New Mexico. While its primary mission is to the University Students, Faculty, Staff and Administrators, the parish community genuinely welcomes all who wish to participate in the work and worship of the parish. As a Newman Center, we have the mission of proclaiming the Word of God and presenting theology to an academic community that finds in our parish an intellectual and spiritual basis for becoming and remaining committed Roman Catholics.

RCIA/RCIC (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adult & Children) will be sponsoring a "Sojourners' Reunion" to bring together and celebrate all those who have participated in the faith formation process that is RCIA here at Aquinas Newman or who have come into the Church through RCIA at other parishes and are now a part of the Newman Faith Community.

We would like to see all who have participated in the process: those initiated or received into full communion; godparents/sponsors; past team members; or presenters/facilitators. Bring a dish or desserts you would like to share.

If you know of non-Catholics who is interested in learning more about our faith or participation in RCIA invite them to attend this gathering at well. If you are interested in being a community sponsor –please come. The idea is to educate the community on its valued role as ministers of Catholic Christian Initiation. STEWARDSHIP:

When stewards collaborate with the Creator, life holds a special meaning. It can't be diminished, cheapened, or cast aside. Stewards reverence all of life, as it is the ultimate and first gift from God. Stewards give respect to all of life in all its stages, even when to do so is a challenge.
